Manel NEBOT - ASPB, Spain

WP3: Evaluation (WP3)

Geoff: Whereas the role of four of the Aphekom work packages is to provide scientific information, two other leaders head small teams with responsibilities that extend through the project as a whole.

I'm now joined by Manel Nebot of the Barcelona Public Health Agency, whose team has the job of evaluating the work being done.

Manel, the work done by your team is different, since its focus is on what the other teams are doing. Would you like to say something about what why ongoing evaluation is an important part of the project?

Manel: Yes, it is of critical importance to be sure that these kind of projects achieve their goals, because there are many projects and many risk factors and many actions going on, and there is a scarcity of resources, and it is of social responsibility or social concern to be sure that what we are doing is really going to make a difference.

Geoff: Manel, thank you for your comments.
